In other words, the penurious Mr. Booth, of that portion of Chelsea which Dr. Wiseman calls the "slums," was no other than the Trismegistus of English landscape painters—the semi-deity of Mr. Ruskin-Turner, the Royal Academician!

Turner's habit of leaving his old mansion in Queen Anne street, and its almost as old house-keeper, in their united dirt and glory, was known to many of his professional friends ; but none of them knew of the locality of his lair, and were as little cognizant of the pseudonym under which he inhabited it.

Such is the trait of feebleness of character in a great man. But the Turners loved money; that love was a constitutional singularity in them. He was soon surrounded by the friends of a certain candidate for the clerkship, and his vote solicited. The stranger intimated that "he thought pretty well of that gentleman from what he had heard of him, but as he had just arrived, could not say anything positive till he had changed his dress and refreshed himself.' Besides, 'his funds were out, and as he could not draw his mileage until to-morrow, he must seek some friend to help him, and that $50 would answer for the present.' The arrangement was quickly made to put the member into funds, and $50 were handed to him-but on the following day, behold the assumed member was amongst the missing, and has not been heard of since.'

New York .....1 Virginia .... REVIEW OF THE WILMINGTON MARKET. FOR THE WEEK ENDING PEBRUARY 5, 1852

REMARKS .- The water courses are yet low, and but little produce arriving from above tide way. Business has, in consequence, been remarkably dull for the season. The weather Stanly, William J. Nash, and others, of Attakapas, St. Ma- is now warm and pleasant, with some indication of rain .the rivers are up.

BACON-N. C. bacon has come in with some freedom during the week, the receipts having reached some 20,000 lbs., about half of which has been disposed of at prices ranging The following good story is related by a corresponthe Court-House in Wilmington, on the petitioner's making publication for one month of the time and place of taking publication for one mo

BEEF CATTLE-The stock in Butchers' hands is about fair, and prices have improved as also the quality. A prime article brought 64 cents per lb. on the hoof, for the nett beef.

Conn-The receipts this week have reached the rise of 7,000 bushels frem Newbern, Washington and Mattamuskete, all but one cargo, about 2,000 bushels, have arrived to order and will go in Store, the balance is selling from vessel & Brown ; with lumber. in lots at 65 cents per bushel, cash. The stock on hand at this time may be considered fair. COFFEE - We have no change to make in our figures of this article, which are confined to store prices and sales slow. We note sales of 104 bags from Porto Rico direct, at 9kc. per lb. Eggs-are scarce and sell from carts at about quotations FEATHERS-are remarkably scarce, the demand being much greater than the supply. Sales at 40 cents per lb. FLOUR-Sales from store at about quotations in quantity

HAY-The stock on hand is light. We note a sale of 100 bales Eastern, yesterday evening, at 921 cts. per 100 lbs. cash. LARD .- There is a fair stock of lard on hand, both Western and N. C., and sales dull at 10 to 10 for the latter. LIME .- About 1,300 bbls. have arrived during the week-700 of which was taken at $1 25 per cask, cash; the balance on private terms.

LUMBER .- One mixed raft has changed hands at prices ranging from $8 to $12 per M., for wide and flooring boards, and scantling.

Molasses .- The cargoes of brigs Ellen Hayden and Nancy Pratt, have been closed off during the week at about 19c. per gall., 90 days, with the exception of some 30 or 40 hhds. in the first of the sales which brought 20c. per gallon.

NAVAL STORES.—The sales of turpentine for the week ended this day, have reached about 2,255 barrels, including the sales of this morning, (934 bbls.) Friday and Saturday the article sold at last Thursday's quotations. On Monday an advance of 5 cents was obtained for soft, early in the morning, but sales again receded to former prices. Tuesday's sales were at $2 35 for soft, and $1 45 a $1 50 for hard-latter price being paid for lots of all hard. Wednesday, the soft article brought $2 40, and the hard $1 45 a $1 50. Te-day vesterday's prices have been given. The sales have been confined to distillers. We quote

Water " "hard " ...... 1 45 rels common at 90 cents per bbl. There has been some conthe week, and considering the small stock in the market, the week's quotations of 2 cents per gallon, and the barrels $1 75. The article is very firm at 32 cents, and some holders are the price above sales quoted above. Tar .- About 360 bar-

RICE .- We note the sale of 40 bbls. clean rice, on Saturday, at $3 25 per 100 lbs. SALT .- A cargo of about 3500 bushels closed off on Saturday last at 17 cents per bushel, 90 days. TIMBER.-Receipts light and prices continue high. See table for classified prices.
